Jackknife Sofa

Owner's Manual

(For Aftermarket Applications)

Introduction

The Jackknife Sofa converts into a bed of high-density foam, and the steel spring seat supports provide a sturdy base. Optional lengths are 62", 68" and 72", and 1 ½" of clearance is required behind the sofa to fold it down into the bed position. The steel-framed furniture easily converts from a sofa to a sleep surface. You can also choose to add our optional leg kit #364582 which is sold separately.
